Summary of reasons for decision:

The video file is a selfie video depicting a child defecating and urinating and then performing a sexual act on herself, which has the effect of sexualising the act of urination and defecation. The video is likely to be titillating to viewers with a prurient interest in young girls, urination and defecation. The availability of such material encourages and reinforces these interests. The video encourages viewers to regard young girls as appropriate subjects for adult sexual fantasy and desire and is therefore deemed to be objectionable because it promotes and supports the exploitation of children for sexual purposes, and the use of urine and excrement in association with sexual conduct. It is therefore deemed to be objectionable under ss3(2)(a) and 3(2)(d) of the Films, Videos, and Publications Classification Act 1993. The classification of this publication interferes with the right to freedom of expression set out in the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990. However, this is an outcome that is consistent with Parliament's intention that publications falling under s3(2) be deemed to be objectionable.
